

Scope

Professor Paolo G. Camici, MD, FESC, FACC, FAHA, FRCP has taken over from Professor Andrew J.S. Coats (Joint Academic Vice-President, Monash University, Australia AND University of Warwick, United Kingdom) as Editor-in-Chief of the International Journal of Cardiology in September 2016.

Having worked for many years in prestigious Universities and hospitals both in the UK and Italy, with a wealth of experience as Consultant, Clinician Scientist, Program Director, Lecturer, Examiner, Society Fellow, Working Group Chairman and member of multiple Editorial Boards, Professor Camici's current position is Consultant Cardiologist and Director of Cardiovascular Research Center, S Raffaele Hospital, Milan Italy.

Professor Camici has appointed a prestigious new Editorial Board including four Deputy Editors (Prof. Domenico Cianflone, Prof. Dobromir Dobrev, Prof. Amir Lerman and Dr. Ornella Rimoldi).

The goal of this new team is to create a unique forum for international investigators that can offer an exciting alternative to the main Journals of the European and American Cardiology Societies. In addition to original papers, we are launching a new range of manuscript types, including Consensus and Position Papers, Unsolicited Reviews, Meta-analyses and Short Communications.

Please see "Author Information" for more details.
